EDITORIAL COMMENT.

A German scientist says paper can be made from cotton stalks.

Col. Fred Gardner, the Democratic nominee for governor in Missouri, is a Kentuckian, a native of Hickman.

A Kentucky soldier named August Sieck, of Lewiston, was kicked on the head by an army mule at El Paso, Saturday, and killed.

Speaking of the number 13, a man in Atlanta jumped out of a window on the thirteenth floor of an office building and was killed.

What is believed to have been a submarine has been sighted off the Maine coast, apparently making for a Canadian port. It may be the expected Bremen.

"Cyclone" Davis failed to connect with a Congressional renomination in Texas. Eccentric characters are tolerated for awhile, but in the end people get tired of them.

President Wilson has named Secretary Lane and Justice Brandeis as two of his three Mexican Arbitration Commissioners. The third man has been selected, but not heard from.

The Democratic campaign will be launched with vigor early in September, all over the country. President Wilson is growing stronger all of the time. The Roosevelt sell-out is reacting strongly in his favor.

Dr. Eva Harding, a Topeka suffragist leader, won the democratic nomination for congressman in the First Kansas district over the Rev. H. J. Crowne, in the recent state-wide primary.

The Master Bakers are in session in Salt Lake City and 400 Chicago bakers have gone to the meeting to urge the abolition of the five-cent loaf of bread. They want to make no loaf cheaper than a dime.

The difficulty experienced in securing recruits shows that the war spirit has abated. The people do not want war and do not expect war and the average citizen sees no fascination in regular army life in times of peace.

Negotiations with Mexico were halted until the state department could find out the exact meaning of the Spanish word "preferentiamente," translated "preferably." Uncle Sam wants to be sure that Carranza is not showing too much "anagnosity."

Casement was undoubtedly a traitor or caught in the act and under the law his life was the forfeit. If the Irish rebellion had succeeded it might have been different. If George Washington had failed his fate would have been the same as Casement's.

The first report that Judge A. J. Kirk had won the Republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Seventh district has not been borne out by the figures. Judge Flem D. Sampson now appears to have won. He claims 1,500 majority.

Miss Kitty Marion, an English suffragette who came to New York at the outbreak of the war, is now employed in New York as a dish-washer. She was one of the women who was forcibly fed while attempting to starve herself when committed to jail for destroying property.

When Dr. C. G. Daugherty's touring car stalled on a railroad crossing near Paris Monday night, Judge Denis Dundon, who was in the car with him, set fire to a brand new $10 Panama hat to use as a torch to flag an approaching train. His sacrifice was in vain, as the train struck and demolished the car. Judge Dundon suffered a sprained ankle in running up the track.

THE ITALIANS TAKE 8,000

Allies Dash Forward In Both the Somme and Verdun Regions.

GERMANY LOSING GROUND

Russians Have Captured 62 Square Miles of Territory in Drive.

London, Aug. 8.—The Entente Allies in the main theaters of the war have made additional notable gains against the Teutonic Allies. Big advances for them in France, East Galicia and along the eastern front are recorded in the latest communications issued by the French, Russian and Italian War offices.

The Gorizia bridgehead, the key to an advance to Triest, and over which the Austrians and Italians have fought many notable battles, has at last fallen into the hands of the Italians, and the city of Gorizia is being shelled by them in an endeavor to drive out its defenders. The taking of the bridgehead came with the capture of Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele. In the fighting the Italians took more than 8,000 prisoners and a large number of guns, machine guns and a quantity of war materials.

The Russians, in their advance against the Austro-Germans in East Galicia, have taken territory aggregating sixty-one square miles, according to the Russian official communication. In pursuit of the Teutons, the Russians have taken additional villages in the Dniester region.

Notable gains have been made by the French in the Somme battle. In two days they have carried German trenches along a front of more than three and a half miles, to a depth of from 300 to 500 meters. In the Verdun sector they have succeeded in regaining a foothold in the Thiaumont work. The British also have pushed their lines about 400 yards forward.

YOUNG MOTHER'S UNTIMELY END

Passed Away Tuesday Night, After a Lingering Illness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Marion H. Meacham were held at the home, at 216 Brown street, yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Dr. Calvin M. Thompson conducted the service. Interment took place at Riverside cemetery following the funeral service.

Mrs. Meacham died Tuesday night of tuberculosis, of which she had long been a victim. She had been in declining health for over a year. Mrs. Meacham was formerly Miss Mamie Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Henderson. She was 25 years old. Her bereaved husband, to whom she had been married for four years, and two small children, survive her.

MAUD MULLER AGAIN.

Maud Muller, on a summer day, with her fellow ran away, in a benzine touring car, scouting to a preacher far. Maud's father saw the fleeing pair—smelled the benzine scented air, caught a mule whose name was Jane, and galloped down the dusty lane; the mobile very swiftly ran, but burned the oil out of the can. The motor stopped upon a hill, but Jane ran on just fit to kill. Alas for maid, alas for man; alas for empty benzine can. Maud's daddy on the old grey mule came and took her off to school. The mule nigh wrecked the benzine cart; the fellow died of a broken heart. The moral of this tale so sad: "Don't steal the girl; go ask her dad."

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET

Passed by City Commissioners Upon the Resignation of Mayor Yost.

The City Commissioners met Tuesday morning, but did not discuss the question of the appointment of a new mayor or commissioner. No business of importance came up. The following resolutions were passed:

Whereas, at the last preceding meeting of this Board, Mayor F. K. Yost tendered his resignation as Mayor of the City of Hopkinsville to take effect immediately, Therefore

Be It Resolved by the Board of commissioners: That the resignation of Mayor F. K. Yost be, and the same is hereby accepted. That in accepting the resignation of the Mayor, we deem it proper to say that the association of the Commissioners with him has at all times been exceedingly friendly, agreeable and advantageous in the performance of our official duties.

Second, We take pleasure in recording the fact that in our opinion the city has never had a more efficient, conscientious and upright officer; that in the discharge of his official duties he was always clear-headed, considerate of the city's interests and careful to see that the humblest citizen, as well as the most prominent, was fully protected in his right; and that we deplore his retirement from office as a decided loss to the city.

Third, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Board as a permanent expression of our appreciation of the official services of the high personal esteem of the remaining members of this Board.

TWO RECEIVERS.

L. B. Henry, of Dixon, was today appointed receiver of the Eastern State Hospital for the Insane by Dr. J. A. Goodson, superintendent, to succeed Walter P. Clemons, who resigned recently, the new appointee to take charge on August 15. Mr. Henry is a former county attorney of Webster county, and is now engaged in the practice of law. Mr. Clemons retires from the office to go to Jamaica, where he will engage in business.—Courier-Journal.

E. P. Wilkins, of this city, left for Lakeland the first of the week on the authority of the Board of Control to remain for a month, at the end of that time to be sent to Lexington as receiver. There must be a mistake somewhere.

FERRELL'S BOYS NOTES

To-morrow is the day for the second annual reunion of Ferrell's Boys to begin in this city.

It is expected that most of the out-of-town members of the organization will arrive in the forenoon. Some will come to-day.

Col. Malcolm H. Crump, commandant of cadets in 1874-1876, will arrive to-night and be quartered at Hotel Latham as the honored guest of the association.

Hon. F. T. Glasgow, of Lexington, Va., a former teacher in the school, will not attend this year.

Prof. C. C. Thach, of Auburn, Ala., who taught in 1878, has not been heard from in response to the invitation.

One other teacher, Capt. F. D. Peabody, of Columbus, Ga., died ten years ago.

The first session will be held at the court house tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock for business. After a business session there will be a round table at which Col. Crump will preside. It will consist of talks about

AFTER MONTHS OF SUFFERING

Death Claims Mr. W. T. Williamson, Union Veteran and Prominent Citizen.

SPENT WINTER IN FLORIDA

Vainly Seeking Relief From a Chronic Illness of Long Standing.

Mr. W. T. Williamson died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at his home in this city, after a long illness. He went to Florida last fall seeking health and returned home several weeks ago, not having found relief.

Since returning, he had been confined to his bed with a complication of throat and lung troubles.

He had long been one of the prominent citizens of Hopkinsville, and a leader of the Republican party. He served a term as county jailer, was a member of the council, justice of the peace and filled other positions of honor and trust.

He was born in Jefferson county, Illinois, Sept. 5, 1844, and was 72 years of age.

He was twice married and leaves seven children by his first marriage. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Laura Cook, of Elmo, one daughter and one son by his last marriage—Cyrus M. Williamson and Miss Adelia Williamson. Two of his older sons, V. M. Williamson and J. A. Williamson, also live in this city.

Mr. Williamson was a veteran of the Union army, serving in Co. A, Third Kentucky cavalry.

He was a member of the First Baptist church and an upright, Christian man.

His funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence and the interment will be in Riverside Cemetery.

BUSH APPOINTED

Frankfort, Aug. 9.—Gov. Stanley this afternoon appointed Judge Chas. H. Bush, of Hopkinsville, to be circuit judge, to succeed Judge J. T. Hanberry, deceased.

VICTIM OF HEAT.

Herbert Dade, colored, who for eighteen years had been cook and house man for the family of Mayor Frank H. Bassett, died in Evansville Tuesday. Dade had gone to Evansville with a crowd of negroes to do labor there. He was unaccustomed to the heavy work in the sun and was overcome by heat. He had been a faithful and valuable servant to Mayor Bassett.

If the weather is favorable there will be a reception at Virginia Park at 8 o'clock. If there is rain it will be held at Hotel Latham. There will be a short program of speeches.

Saturday will be the principal day. The features will be a barbecue at Lake Tandy for the Ferrell Boys only and at night a meeting at the Tabernacle, to which everybody will be welcome.

At this meeting the formal address of welcome will be made by Jas. A. McKenzie and there will be responses by one or more visitors.

Every one is hoping for favorable weather Saturday, but if it should rain the program will be carried out, except that the outing will probably be at the fair grounds instead of the Lake. This would give plenty of shelter and lessen the difficulty of transportation.

C. B. Phipps, of Pueblo, N. Mex., writes that he cannot come, on account of an old sun stroke and the fear of hot weather in Kentucky.

MANY FRIENDS OF DEAD JURIST

Attend the Funeral Services
Tuesday, From Other Towns.

With sadness in their hearts, hundreds of the friends of Circuit Judge J. T. Hanberry gathered at the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock and silently and feelingly took part in the funeral ceremonies over his remains. Dr. Calvin M. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, in which Judge Hanberry had been a loyal and active member, conducted the services. Dr. Thompson had been in Barbourville holding a revival meeting, and returned for the sole purpose of conducting the service.

A large number of out-of-town people came here to the funeral. Judge Hanberry had friends in all parts of the state. He numbered many personal friends in the towns in his judicial district where his work as a public servant had been largely conducted. Many men were present from these towns. There were about fifty people here from other cities. Among these were: Judge McKenzie Moss, of Bowling Green; Dr. Milton Board, of Louisville; Denny P. Smith and Jno. C. Dabney, of Cadiz; John B. Chilton, of Eddyville; Randolph Mallory and Lewis Chilton, of Todd county; R. S. Mason, Senator S. R. Glenn, N. W. Utley and Charles Gresham, of Lyon county; James Edwards, John Lancaster, Rainey T. Wells, James Coleman, Isaac Keys, of Calloway; John W. Hooks, Max M. Hanberry, Cadiz.

The floral offerings were lavish and beautiful. The designs were some of the handsomest ever seen here. Two large casket blankets and a number of elaborate designs and sprays and a large number of smaller designs were received.

The bar in many towns in Judge Hanberry's district, the Hopkinsville bar, the courthouse officials, the Fidelia Sunday School class, the secret orders to which he belonged and other organizations signified their sorrow by floral offerings.

Interment took place in Riverside cemetery following the ceremonies.

The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in the city.

RESOLUTIONS BY CADIZ BAR.

Whereas, it has pleased Omnipotent Providence to call from his earthly labors to his final reward, Hon. J. T. Hanberry, Judge of the Third Judicial District of Kentucky, the beloved presiding Judge of the Trigg Circuit Court, who departed this life on the 6th day of August, 1916, at his home in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, possessing a hope of a blissful life beyond the grave, therefore:

Be It Resolved, by the Cadiz Bar and officers of the court, that in the death of Judge J. T. Hanberry, the Trigg Circuit Court has lost a presiding judge who was eminently qualified to, and did courageously without fear or favor discharge the duties devolving on him, rightly construing the law and giving even and exact justice to all men. And who as a man and a citizen was foremost in furthering those things and measures that were for the benefit of humanity, and the elevation and uplift of mankind. In friendship he was true and devoted, possessing a rare charm of manner that attracted the esteem and confidence of his fellow men. In the home circle he was devoted to his family, and was a faithful and consistent member of his church; and we doubt not that on the morning of Resurrection he will receive the reward that his purity of life and conduct deserves.

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished his widow, a copy furnished the Cadiz Record and Hopkinsville Kentuckian for publication and that they be spread in full upon the Order Book of the Trigg Circuit Court.

DR. BASSETT'S QUICK WORK

Gave First Relief To Injured Train Men In L. & N. Wreck.

SEVEN CARS DERAILED
By A Miracle Almost No Lives Were Lost, But Three Were Hurt.

Dr. Frank H. Bassett, Mayor of Hopkinsville, returned home at half past one today from an eventful trip to Evansville and on the return acted good Samaritan and did heroic rescue work, bathing, dressing the wounds, and relieving the suffering of the engineer, baggage master and fireman, who were badly injured when the fast L. & N. passenger train 53, going at fifty miles an hour, struck a broken switch and split rails seven minutes past four o'clock inside the city limits of Slaughtersville, demolishing the engine and throwing seven cars from the tracks. No passengers were injured and the injuries of the trainmen are not fatal.

Dr. Bassett, left his official duties as mayor of the city long enough to go to Evansville to get the body of Herbert Dade, an old faithful and highly respected negro servant who had been house man in the Bassett family for eighteen years. Dade had been overcome by heat while doing labor in Evansville. Dr. Bassett was the only Hopkinsville person on the train and also the only physician.

When the wreck occurred Dr. Bassett ran immediately up to where the most serious damage had occurred. He found the engineer, Jim Rearden, under the smashed iron of the engine cab and dragged him from the wreckage. He was badly cut and shocked. People on the train said that they believed the immediate attention given by Dr. Bassett to the injured man was all that saved his life. With sheets and towels from the Pullman Dr. Bassett made bandages and splinted the broken leg of the baggage man with what material he could find. He sewed three stitches in engineer Rearden's lip after emergency equipment could be secured from a Slaughtersville drug store.

Dr. Bassett telephoned back to his wife this morning that he was not hurt and sent word to the commissioner that he would not be in the mayor's office.

The wooden box covering the coffin in which the body of Herbert Dade was being conveyed, was broken entirely off by the smashing baggage car, but the coffin itself was not broken open.

All passage on the road was held up in this section of the road until after ten o'clock on account of the wreck.

THE DABNEY WAREHOUSE

Leased For Loose Floor By Butler & Jackson For Three Years.

The warehouse property on Campbell street and the L. & N. railroad, owned and occupied for many years by F. W. Dabney, which was recently bought by the Planters' Bank and Trust Company, has been rented to Butler & Jackson, who will operate a big loose floor there.

The building is a big one and excellently suited for use as a loose floor. It is already being remodeled and improvements are being made so that Messrs. Butler & Jackson will be able to begin business in earnest as soon as the season starts.

Butler & Jackson will retain their present building, running through from Fourteenth to Thirteenth streets alongside the L. & N. railroad.

One of the biggest demonstrations by workingmen that has occurred during the war took place in London Monday. The gathering demanded reparations for the execution of Capt.
Fryatt of the British steamer Brussels by the Germans in Belgium. Speakers urged the impounding of all German property and the hanging of Emperor William, Admiral von Tirpitz and Governor-General von Bissing of Belgium, as "common malefactors" before the declaration of peace.

Officers' casualty lists for two weeks from July 1 to 15, show the severity of the fighting since the great offensive began on the western front, the British army in the fortnight losing 500 officers killed, 1,764 wounded and 290 missing—a total of 2,634. This makes a total loss of British officers since the beginning of the war 9,577 killed, 20,220 wounded, 2,261 missing, a total of 32,058. In the last two weeks of July, the British army lost 4,450 officers killed, wounded and missing. This brought the total for the month up to 7,084, and the grand total since the outbreak of the war to 36,508.

Justice Hughes made a set speech at Detroit Monday and opened another crate of rotten eggs. Mr. Hughes assailed the administration's course toward upholding American rights abroad during the European war.
"When I say that I am an American citizen," he said, "I ought to say the proudest thing that any man can say in this world. But you can't have that pride if American citizenship is a cheap thing, if it is not worthy of protection this wide world over. There is no man who could successfully present to an American community the platform that an American citizen's rights stop at the coast line and that beyond that American life is to be the prey of any marauder that chooses to take it."

This vehement reference to the
"marauder" who has excited his ire, is not likely to please even the German-American Republicans, who are supposed to be his warmest supporters. From saying nothing at all, Mr.
Hughes is about to go to the other extreme and talk his head off.

UDDER DEVELOPMENT OF COW

Sufficient Importance Not Placed on Dairy Characteristics by Dairy Cattle Owners.

Many owners of dairy cattle do not place sufficient importance on the purely dairy characteristics of the animals they keep and breed. One of the points often overlooked is udder development, although it would seem that this would be the first thing an intelligent dairyman would look for in the selection of a cow. While an occasional cow with a small, ill-shaped udder will give a good quantity of milk, such animals are merely the exceptions which prove the rule that good dairy cows should show good development of the milk organs.

The good udder is large but does not display its size by hanging in a

FINE TYPE OF DAIRY COW.

low inverted conical shape. Such an udder does not add to the beauty and symmetry of the animal and too often its dangling, swaying motion in travel is a source of irritation. It cannot possibly be expected to give as good results as a blocky compact udder of equal size in each quarter and extending well to the front and rear. The teats should be of sufficient size to be grasped firmly while milking. They should be set squarely on the quarter and be of cylindrical rather than conical shape. The cow with a low hanging bag and conical-shaped teats is not a choice animal to milk and it will usually be found that she does not do well at the pail.

Percentage has much to do with the conformity of the cow's udder, and whether the sire will influence this characteristic to a certain extent the function of the udder is not after his nature and the dam will have to be depend upon largely to perpetuate proper form in this regard. Practical experience will prove that a heifer will ordinarily have in a marked degree the external milk organ characteristics of her dam. It is therefore desirable that in the selection of breeding stock close attention be paid to the udder development.

VARIETY OF FEEDS FOR CALF

When Animal Is Four Weeks Old It Can Get Along Without Milk—
Gruel Answers Purpose.

After a calf is four weeks old it can get along very well on little or no milk if you are short. Make a gruel out of a variety of feeds, say corn meal, off meat, middlings, bran, ground oats; mix them all together and cool a kettle of it, having about the consistency of gruel. At first feed a pint of this in three quarts of warm water;
increase to a quart of the gruel.

In addition, give the calf clover hay and ensilage if you have it; in fact, any roughage you happen to have. Also begin to feed it cornmeal and ground oats as soon as it will eat.

SUMMER WORK IN THE DAIRY

Nothing More Unpleasant Than When Pastures are Short and the Flies are Troublesome.

At no time of the year is dairying more unpleasant work than during the time when pastures are short and the flies are troublesome.

Now is the time when it pays to have supplemental forage crops and to darken the stables and keep the cows inside during the hottest part of the day. The cold weather during the winter is less difficult to contend with than the hot sun and flies during the summer.

COWS REQUIRE MUCH WATER

Animals Should Have Access to Supply at Least Twice Daily—Well Water is Best.

Milking cows require a much larger quantity of water than is necessary for growing animals. They should have access to a good clean water supply at least twice a day. The best supply is well water pumped into a tank or trough, failing this a running stream is best.

EXPERT PROOF IS EXPENSIVE

Street Railway in Massachusetts Pays Experts a Large Sum to Boost Fares.

The Bay State Street railway has paid about $120,000 to date for the valuation report on which the road bases its fees for six-cent fares, and the valuation expert is still drawing $50 a day for testifying before the public service commission. It has developed during the continued cross-examination of Robert M. Feustel, the $50-a-day expert, himself, remarks the Boston Post.

Thus, if the road wins its plea, it will have to collect 2,000,000 six-cent fares from patrons in the eighty-odd cities and towns which it serves to secure an amount equal to the expert's fees.

And if the Bay State company should lose its plea, it will require 2,400,000 nickel fares to make up the amount.
It has paid the expert for preparing a valuation report on which the road relies to prove its claim that a five-cent fare does not provide enough revenue by $1,615,165 a year, the sum which Feustel estimates is needed and which he says a six-cent fare would provide.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armour glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different subjects, including hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers of the world, accurate, permanent tables, and valuable maps—record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hur-dreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an ineffaceable impression.

EMINENT FAIR DIRECTORS

Mat. S. Cohen and W. J. Gooch Are Arranging Features of Interest and Vital Importance Which Promise to Make the Coming Fair the Greatest Event in the History of the State.

Mat. S. Cohen (Upper). W. J. Gooch (Lower).

DOMINANT in the preparation and operation of the Kentucky State Fair are two officials, the Commissioner of Agriculture and the State Fair Secretary. Both are vital to the importance and welfare of the great agricultural and industrial celebration which serves as a clearing-house for the year's accomplishment throughout the State, and both should possess gifts beyond the ordinary measure. And it is fortunate, indeed, to Kentucky at large that both offices are filled this year with men who give promise of being ideally suited to guide the fourteenth annual Kentucky State Fair to be held in Louisville, September 11-16 to a success which will be a revelation to the State at large.

Cohen's Standing.

Madison Sandidge Cohen, the newly elected Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, better and more briefly known as Mat. S. Cohen, is a newcomer to politics, but his whirlwind victory in the November elections typifies the man. Prior to his entry in the political arena he was a recognized authority as a horseman and stock raiser, lecturing at Kentucky State College, Missouri State College and Kansas City State College and writing and publishing volumes bearing on the subject dear to the heart of every Kentuckian and important to the commercial welfare and world-wide prestige of the State as an

Kentucky State Fair Provides for Boys' Pig Clubs in An Elaborate Manner

Many Counties to be Represented—Boys to be Given Free Trips to the Great Fair.

IN 1915 a boys' pig club was introduced into Kentucky. Thirteen counties were organized under the leadership of their county agents and 649 boys became members. Local shows were held and the winning boy from each county received a free trip to the Farmer Boys' Encampment at the State Fair. Sixteen boys were given this trip and eighteen pigs were exhibited. This was the first state pig club show in Kentucky. Although the exhibit was small, the interest was so great and the showing so good that the pig club has become one of the most popular and beneficial boys' clubs in Farm Demonstration Work.

From this small beginning the boys' pig club has spread to 40 counties with a membership of 1,250 boys in a single year. Bankers, business men and farmers have co-operated to the extent of placing over $5,000.00 worth of pure bred hogs in the hands of these boys.

The state agent and county agents co-operated in organizing, holding meetings, securing registered pigs, visiting members, and instructing them along the proper lines of animal husbandry.

The 1916 pig club started May 15th. Each boy had a gilt between two and four months of age, and most of them were registered pigs. Record books were furnished the boys and the pigs were weighed and ear tagged by the county agent at the beginning of the contest.

Local Shows First.

It is contemplated that a local show be held in each of the counties organized, at which numerous prizes will be given. The first prize in each county will be a free trip to the Farmer Boys' Encampment, given by the State Fair and College of Agriculture, to the boy making the best showing as follows:

(a) Best hog with respect to purpose for which it was raised. 40%

(b) Greatest daily gains. 15%

(c) Cheapest cost of production. 25%

(d) Best kept record book. 20%

Not only will the winning boy be given a free trip to the fair, but negotiations are now under way whereby the best two pigs from each county will be sent to the fair free. Already one of the largest railroads in Kentucky has granted free transportation to add from the fair for the best two pigs in counties having pig clubs along its lines.

Free Entrance Fee.

The Kentucky State Fair has realized the educational value of an exhibit from these boys and to that end have opened their doors wide, allowing each pig club exhibitor free entrance, free pens and a distinct and separate department, at the same time giving them the privilege to exhibit in the breeders classes. Over $150.00 in prizes has been given by record associations, business men and farmers. Last year one boy defeated a ring of twenty-four choice pigs.

The results of the pig club have been widespread; hundreds of farmers have changed their feeding methods; pure bred hogs have been taken into counties where they were not known; community breeding has resulted in six or seven counties; hogs are becoming interested in the farm; greater interest is being centered on the swine industry of Kentucky and this coming September 11 to 16, 1916, the greatest hog show in the history of the Kentucky State Fair is predicted

Rain interfered with the McPherson lot sale on Garrett avenue Tuesday morning and the sale was postponed after seventy-eight lots had been disposed of. The remainder of the addition, which will form a suburb for colored people, will be sold in lots Saturday morning at 10:30. The average price of the lots sold was $48. Some of the lots sold as high as $95. The smallest price was $25.

The sale was conducted by the Newbury Realty company. It was the first colored lot sale ever held in Hopkinsville. The Earlington colored brass band made the music.

International News-Print.

Boston—It is probably no alarmist statement to assert that not for many years have conditions in the news-print industry so threatened a runaway market as they do today. For several years the production of news-print in the United States has not only failed to increase, but it has slightly retrograded, due to the diversion of mills from news-print to other classes of paper production.

For three years the increase in consumption has been subnormal. In fact, for the three years, 1913, 1914, and 1915, official figures show gain of but 6 per cent. in American consumption of news-print. All of this increase, and more, too, came from the output of Canadian mills, now estimated to be shipping over 1,000 tons of news-print into the United States daily.

But for the past nine months American demand for news-print has gone up steadily week by week. The officials of the News Print Manufacturers' association estimate that advertising in the nations' papers is running 35 per cent. larger than a year ago. This means a big increase in demand for paper for this one purpose.

As a result of the steadily growing demand the surplus stock of news-print in the United States has been drawn down to the smallest figures in history. At this season the mills should be meeting a slump in demand due to seasonal changes. None has come. There is no chance for the mills to accumulate stocks, and all that saved the situation to date has been the fact that wet weather has enabled eastern mills to run at capacity where in ordinary year low water would have forced part time operations.

Some good judges feel that it will be a miracle if some papers do not have to suspend publication within the next six months. Of course this does not mean the big metropolitan dailies, but the smaller suburban dailies and the little weeklies.

It is estimated that, due to higher labor and raw material costs, the expense of producing news-print is averaging $3 per ton more than in 1915. The manufacturers are getting this back in the price. That much of an advance is justified by actual conditions of expense. What some of the longer headed news-print mills apprehend is that an unwise advance in price will produce a situation that will hurt the sustained earning power of the industry. High priced news-print brings down the wrath of the publishers, stimulates unwise competition and hurts generally far more than it helps.

Farmer Suicides.

Despondent, because of continued ill health, James Ledbetter, aged 40, farmer, living near Poole's Mills, ten miles southwest of St. Charles, committed suicide at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon by shooting himself just beneath the heart with a shotgun. He died instantly. Ledbetter pulled the trigger of the gun with his toe while lying in bed and when the other members of the family were absent from the room.—Madisonville Messenger.

NICK STADELMAN BIG ROCK SUITS MITCHELL

Alleges Permanent Injuries Efforts Being Made to Send a Resulted From An Accident In Mitchell's Car.

Nick Stadelman filed suit yesterday in the circuit clerk's office against William L. Mitchell, for three thousand dollars, alleged to have been damaged received by him by being knocked against the top of an automobile driven for hire by Mr. Mitchell. The petition states that Mr. Stadelman received lasting injuries to his eyes and nose.

The petition filed states that Mr. Mitchell collected a crowd to go to Clarksville to the second baseball game of the season this year, charging the men who went $2 each. It says that he drove "in such a careless and reckless manner, and with speed and in utter disregard of the safety and lives of the passengers of said machine" as to endanger the lives of those in the machine and all persons using the Clarksville pike. It says that Mr. Mitchell made a boast of the high rate of speed that he would go in. It claims that Mr. Stadelman was "thrown against the tops and sides of said car, tearing and lacerating his nose and injuring his eyes and impairing eyesight and causing lasting damage to his eyes and nose and causing him to receive other bodily injuries of permanent character."

ORPHAN BRIGADE

Will Probably Hold Its Reunion Here This Fall.

The Courier-Journal say, that it is highly probable that the 1916 reunion of the Orphan Brigade will be held in this city, accepting an invitation extended by the local chapter U. D. C. About 380 members of the brigade are living, but of this number it is expected that only sixty-five or seventy will attend the reunion, as many live in Texas, Louisiana and elsewhere throughout the country, the distance being too far to permit of their presence. The reunion will last two days.

Two plans are before the Stewart county people. One is to build a road from Tobaccoport to Montgomery county, adjoining the Clarksville road. Modern "Jean Valjean."

Gov. Harris has granted a full and unconditional pardon to Thomas Edgar Stripling, Georgia's most famous prisoner, who, as an escaped convict with a life term for murder hanging over him, made his way toward the North 19 years ago, began life anew, was joined by his wife, raised a family of 10 children, and rose to the position of Chief of Police of Danville Va., under the name of R. E. Morris.

Stripling shot and killed W. J. Cornett through the window of the latter's home in 1897. He testified at the trial that Cornett had insulted both his wife and his sister, and had boasted that either Stripling or himself would die when they met. He was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. He remained at liberty after his escape for over 15 years.

The Great Change in the War

The last days of the second year of the world conflict saw a momentous change. For the first time the initiative on all fronts passed to the enemies of the Central Powers. In the East, the West, and the South, German and Austrian troops stood on the defensive, outnumbered and sensibly retreating under furious assaults of Russian, Italian, British and French troops. Even in the Balkans formidable Allied bombardments seemed to forecast an attack upon Bulgaria and Salonica. Nowhere save about Verdun, now without importance, did the Germans take the lead and here the results were immaterial, as they were inconsequential.

Not less significant was the fact that at last the great British army showed itself ready for the operation which had long been expected of it and twice, at Neuve Chapelle and Loos, demanded of it in vain. These lines are written too soon after the opening of the British attack to warrant any estimate of the fighting quality the new armies have displayed, but after nearly three weeks they are still going forward and the blunders of Loos and Neuve Chapelle have not been repeated.

Looking backward we see now the whole great war drama unfolded in three acts: The German effort to dispose of France, which ended in the failure at the Marne and the stalemate in Flanders; the German effort to dispose of Russia, which terminated in the Pisk Marshes and terminated in failure; the German effort to exhaust France, morally as well as physically, which came to naught in April, when the French were able to repulse the most desperate of the German assaults upon the Meuse lines and thereafter to hold them to a struggle without importance or issue.

Three times Germany, surrounded by enemies richer in men, in money, in all material resources, and having absolute control of the sea, strove to break the circle of fire about her and dispose of one of her foes, as Napoleon disposed of Austria at Austerlitz, Prussia at Jena, and Russia at Friedland in the first and fortunate phase of his great career as Emperor. Three times she failed. Under her blows France and Russia staggered, but did not fall. Meantime there was left to Britain the time to make her new armies, to arm her millions and put them on the firing line. They are now there.—From "Germany Loses the Initiative—Britain Begins" by Frank A. Simonds, in the American Review of Reviews for August, 1916.

Zeppelins 820 Feet Long

The Germans have just completed and placed in a huge shed at Darmstadt, ten Zeppelins of 820 feet in length with a gas capacity of 190,675 cubic feet. In the hull is provision for machine guns and for light pieces of ordnance. The newest Zeppelins are said to have four armor-plated cars, of which the first is the heaviest. All the cars are fitted with guns. Armor-plated gangways connect the cars. The engines indicate 4,000 horse-power, and the speed is fifty-seven miles and hour. These ships can reach a height of more than 13,000 feet.

Sultana Survivor.

Joseph Taylor Elliott, 71 years old, vice president of a large brokerage firm, died at Indianapolis, Thursday, after an illness of two months of diabetes. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was one of the few to escape death on the ill-fated steamboat Sultana, which burned to the water's edge following an explosion of a boiler in the Mississippi river near Memphis, Tenn., while carrying about 1,900 paroled prisoners to the North in 1865. Fully 1,500 lives were lost in the disaster.

For six months of 1916 Bradstreet's finds that bank clearings have averaged approximately $20,000,000,000 per month. Can the tall Mr. Fairbanks prove that this is less than the 1912 Republican record of $14,000,000,000 per month?

Unique Among Magazines

Probably Joe Mitchell Chapple knows personally more famous people than any other man in the world.

—The London Daily Mail, Paris Edition

Other magazines have their place in action and big headlines of the big men and affairs of the day, but the National is the Joe Mitchell Chapple of the magazine world. It takes you over wide stretches of territory. It sets you down suddenly in some far-off country, and exposes you to human impurities. People usually like it. It "bites" at every angle. It is not a palliative, but a blood bath, not suited to every person—man, woman, child. No matter where you live, the National will do you good. MEN IN MIND IN HOPKINSVILLE

Prominent Factors in The Busy Life of the Pearl City.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 108.

A Young Professional Man Who Has Firmly Established Himself in Business.

DR. H. C. BEAZLEY.

In a series of sketches of representative men of Hopkinsville, men who are making this the most talked-of city in Kentucky, it is but fair that all classes should be represented. With this idea in mind, our subject today is taken from one of the professions, a profession absolutely necessary to the well being and prosperity of the community.

Dr. H. C. Beazley was born in Lafayette, Christian county, July 29, 1878, and was educated in the county schools and later completed his education in South Kentucky College, taking a four years' course and graduating with the degree of A. B. At this time the college was conducted as a co-educational military institution and Dr. Beazley was lieutenant of the company of cadets. He distinguished himself not only in the military department and as an honor student, but also received two medals for oratory.

From South Kentucky College he went to Cumberland University and graduated with the degree of LL. B. in the law department.

At this point he chose the medical profession as his life calling and went to Vanderbilt University, graduating as an M. D., choosing as his field of work Disease of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Since entering upon the practice of medicine, he has taken 2 post graduate courses in New York. In 1901 he attended Bellevue Medical College and in 1903 attended the Manhattan Eye and Ear Institute and the New York Polyclinic.

Dr. Beazley first practiced in Bowling Green for a period of six years and came to Hopkinsville in 1907 as a specialist in diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

He has been very successful in his profession and has built up an extensive practice and during the nine years he has been in Hopkinsville has taken the rank in his profession that it was but natural should come to a physician of his talents, his scientific preparation and the skill that follows years of experience.

Dr. Beazley is a member of the Kentucky Medical Association, the Christian County Medical Society, and is associate member of the New York Medical Society. While at school he became a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is affiliated with the B. P. O. E., which he joined in 1903, and is also a member of the Modern Woodmen.

He was married some years ago to Miss Carrie B. Redd, of this city. Their home is on South Walnut street.

Dr. Beazley's office is on the second floor of the Garnett building on the corner of Main and Eighth streets.

This complimentary sketch is an expression of appreciation of Hopkinsville's representative physicians.

WAS IN POOR HEALTH

Other News Items From Pod, Chronicled for the Kentuckian by Cy Klone.

Pod, Ky., Aug. 9.—James Ledbetter, a tenant on Mr. T. M. Robinson's farm, two miles from Pod, on Tradewater, committed suicide late Saturday afternoon. He had been in very poor health since early spring. Saturday evening Mrs. Ledbetter went to straw stack nearby for straw for her under beds, leaving her niece, a young girl named Dockery, with her husband during her absence. Will Dockery, a nephew, came in and Mr. Ledbetter asked him to go with his sister to Jno. Pollard's, about 150 yards away, and tell Mr. Pollard to come down. Young Dockery declined to leave him alone, but left his sister in charge while he went for Mrs. Ledbetter. Soon after he left the house, the sick man sent the girl to tell Mr. Pollard to come quick. As Mrs. Ledbetter was returning with her nephew a gun shot was heard at the house. She hastened to the house to find her husband on the floor in the throes of death. He was dead when Mr. Pollard arrived. A shotgun and a small cane were found near him on the floor. The charge entered his left side below the heart, ranging upward. He had evidently used the cane in discharging the gun. The coroner was notified and held an inquest Sunday morning. Burial at St. Charles Sunday afternoon. Besides his wife, he leaves four Dockery children, whom they were raising. Little Ruth, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McKnight, underwent an operation for appendicitis last Friday and was getting along nicely yesterday.

There are several cases of diphtheria in the vicinity of Castleberry and Prof. H. L. Thomas has dismissed his school at that place.

Nelson Morgan is the proud father of a bouncing boy, while Ed Robin-son reports a new girl.

Discovering That He Has Been Married Nine Years to His Sister.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 9.—Roger Newton, a University of Wisconsin graduate of Globe, Ariz., has discovered that his wife he married nine years ago is his sister.

Newton, whose real name is George Porter, is the son of a carpenter in Spokane, Wash. When his father was injured, George was placed in an orphanage. He was adopted later by Howard Newton, who moved east.

His adopted parents educated him at the University of Wisconsin. After leaving college, Porter, who had taken the name of Newton, returned to the Pacific northwest. While in Portland, Ore., he married Miss Elizabeth Porter.

The other day Newton found a locket in an old trunk. He opened it and found a tintype of his parents. When he showed it to his wife she fainted. The picture was one of her own father and mother. She had known of a brother, but had never heard what had become of him.
